HOW DOES IT WORK?

FAQ

A unique code for credits towards Lyft rides will be sent to each eligible attendee. The email will come from Lyft to the email used to book your hotel reservation.

March 29, 2027 - Deadline to book hotel and register for conference.

When will credits work?

Lyft credits will be valid during 2027 conference dates (April 19-22, 2027). Unused credits will expire at 5:00 PM CST on April 22, 2027.

Where will credits work?

Lyft credits will only work in downtown San Antonio to and from your hotel and official conference events.

Sharing a hotel room?

Please follow the instructions below when booking your room through onPeak to ensure all eligible attendees will receive their Lyft credits:

1. Select the correct room occupancy (double/triple, etc.)
2. Include the full name and email addresses of all roommates
3. Only registered attendees will receive credits

What if I already booked my hotel room and meet all of the eligibility requirements?

- If you are staying in a room by yourself, you are all set! Watch for the email from Lyft in late April.
- If you will be sharing a room with another TLA 2027 conference attendee, be sure that the name and email address for each roommate is included on the reservation
- For help modifying reservations please contact onPeak.
